U3A South Australia is the state-wide body that oversees U3As in our state. Over the last couple of years a group within that body has been setting up an online system to provide a range of interesting courses for our members. Many of these are one-off sessions that run for an hour. Below are links to the online site as well as a link to a you tube video clip that talks you through how to use the site. We encourage you to have a look.

- How to 'access the site, navigate the site, find courses and enrol' you tube video clip <https://youtu.be/IHuYqLtE5SU>
- Direct link to the Statewide page where courses, enrolment and tutor profiles can be accessed.

- NEW ONLINE COURSE: Are you drawn into detective dramas on TV? This course offers a real-life whodunit medical mystery. It is a behind the scenes look at drama currently unfolding. It has all the elements seen in nightly news: Was there a crime? Who is the true victim? Who has authority? Who is 'weaponising' the science and the law? Who is defamed? Who is the real whistleblower? Who owns classified documents? What is being covered up? More
