

WEDNESDAY EVENING

Renmark Club - Riverfront Balcony

5.00pm Moonrise on the Murray
Canapes, Champagne, Nippy's Orange Juice.

5.30pm Moonrise!

6.00pm Dinner: Renmark Club a la carte.

Guest speaker: Mark Randell.

Mark Randell is a retired geologist, having spent 40 years in mineral exploration throughout Australia. In retirement he has rekindled his interest in South Australian history, including family history and mining history. He has also taken an interest in the University of the Third Age.

His illustrated talk is titled Riverboats of the Murray-Darling Rivers and is an account of opening up the Murray-Darling Rivers for trade by Francis Cadell and William Richard Randell. The presenter has a strong family connection and therefore a strong bias in telling the tale!

The talk will draw on published accounts, family diaries, letters and photographs.
